The Country of White Lilies

Finland, the country of white lilies is a journalistic book by Russian priest and social activist Grigory Spiridonovich Petrov (1866–1925). After the October Revolution, when Petrov lived in Serbia, he wrote a journalistic book, dedicated to Finland and Johan Vilhelm Snellman. The book describes the country as a role model, as a living example for Russia and other countries. In 1923 the book was published in the Serbian entitled "Зидари живота" ("Creators of Life").

A new generation sport: Bocce

Physical Education Teacher Mr. Hamza:

- a different sport
- easy to be played by anyone
- there are talented students in Bocce

What's Bocce?

The object of the game of Bocce is for one team to get as many of their balls closer to the pallino than any of the opponent's balls. When all balls have been played, one team is awarded one point for each of its balls which are closer to the pallino than the closest opposing team's balls. Thus, a team may score 1-4 points for each end of play. If the closest ball of each team is equal in distance from the pallino, no points are awarded. The team that scores in one frame starts the next frame by throwing out the pallino and playing the first ball.

The game is won by the first team scoring 12 points.

Bazen Kimi Kurtardığımızı Fark Etmeyiz...

Fransızlar yeni buluşları olan uçağı tanıtmak için tüm uluslardan katılımcıları davet ederler...

Herkes böyle bir icadın gerçekleşmiş olması nedeniyle şaşkın ve meraklıdır...

Dönemin Osmanlı hükümetine de katılımcı için haber gönderilmiş...

Hükümet icatlara oldukça meraklı olan Ali Rıza Paşa'yı gönderelim o meraklıdır demişler... Ve derhal saraya çağırılmışlar...

Kendisine Fransızların buluşundan bahsetmişler ve Osmanlı'yı temsilen gitmesini istemişler...

Ali Rıza Paşa bunu biz yapmalıydık demiş içinden hayıflanarak...

Yalnız demişler paşaya davet 2 kişilik yanına 1 kişi daha al onu da sen belirle demişler...

Ali Rıza Paşa biraz düşünmüş ve bir delikanlı var onu götürüyüm demiş...

Neyse Ali Rıza Paşa ve delikanlı Paris'in yolunu tutmuşlar...

Paris'te otele yerleşmişler...ve buluşun gösterileceği gün kalabalık meydan ve pist herkes merakla bekliyor..derken pilot hazırlıklarını yapıyor...üstüne mont giyiyor bir de gözlük takıyor...uçak havalanıyor...

Parendeler taklalar manevralar müthiş bir gösteri... Pistte iniyor... Alkışlar arasında iniyor uçaktan...

Herkes kıskanç ama şaşkın .... Bir yetkili bir gönüllü istiyor..pilotun arkasında ona eşlik edebilecek cesareti olan..

Bizim delikanlı atlıyor.. Ben ben... Tamam, deniyor ve delikanlıya gözlük ve mont veriliyor...

Delikanlı montu giyiyor gözlüğü takıyor. Kalabalıktan sıyrılmak üzere iken Ali Rıza Paşa kolundan tutuyor..

Boş ver sen binme bırak başkası binsin diyor...neden diye soruyor delikanlı bir şey mi hissettiniz.. Yok, sen yine de binme evlat diyor... Derken başkası biniyor uçağa..uçak havalanıyor delikanlı öfkeli paşa ya ...

Parendeler..manevralar.. Derken uçak alev topuna dönüyor ve piste çakılıyor..2 ölü...

Delikanlı paşaya bakıyor hayretler içinde... Paşa mağrur ve mutlu bir insanı kurtardığı için...ama bir başkası ölmüştü....

Ama kurtardığı bir insan değildi....

Bir ulustu...

Çünkü delikanlı Mustafa Kemal Atatürk'tü....

10 November, Commemoration of Atatürk

Arsin remembered Mustafa Kemal Atatürk on the 80th anniversary of his passing

Arsin Anatolian High School set to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the death of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the modern Republic of Turkey on Nov. 10, with ceremonies across the district.

The district came to a halt and sirens blared, cars honked for two minutes of contemplation on that day at the exact time of his death, 9:05 a.m.

Flags flew at half-mast across the district.

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk died at the age of 57 in Dolmabahçe Palace in Istanbul due to health problems.

As is customary, thousands of people from all walks of life were expected to flock to Anıtkabir, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's mausoleum in the capital Ankara where an official ceremony was held with the attendance of senior political and military figures.

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk was born in 1881 in the now Greek city of Thessaloniki, which was then part of the Ottoman Empire. He made his mark in the military in 1915 when he led Ottoman forces repelling the allied invasion of Çanakkale, known in the West as the Dardanelles.

Following the collapse of the Ottoman Empire after World War I, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk led the Turkish War of Independence, which defeated European powers hoping to invade the crumbled empire. When he became president, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk strived to transform the former empire into a modern, democratic and secular country.

Respected leader

President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan released a statement on Nov. 9 to mark the commemoration of the 90th anniversary of the founder of modern-day Turkey.

"I commemorate with respect the passing of veteran Mustafa Kemal on the 80th anniversary [of his death]. Veteran Mustafa Kemal, who led the independence struggle and led this heroic war to a victory with unprecedented sacrifices the nation made and earned a respected place in world history as a successful military commander and leader," Erdoğan said in the statement.

"We all have to do our part to make sure the Republic, which Atatürk called his greatest accomplishment, lives forever and carry it forward," he added.

Teachers: the new generation will be your devotion.

Happy is the one who says, "I'm a Turk".

Peace at home, peace in the world.

As they have come, so they will go.

One day my mortal body will turn to dust, but the Turkish Republic will stand forever.

A healthy mind in a healthy body.

Sovereignty is not given, it is taken.

Bridge of Lovers

We make gender discrimination in daily life and we don't notice this. We may use non-discriminatory words instead of using words of discrimination.

General strategy for gender-equal language use:

Instead of these gender-specific words...	... choose these bias-free words
Business man	Business person or business worker
Chairman	Chair, chairperson
Fellow worker	Coworker or colleague
Fireman	Firefighter
foreman	Supervisor
Housewife	Homemaker
Insurance salesman	Insurance agent
Landlord or landlady	Owner
Mailman	Mail carrier or postal worker
Newsman	Newscaster or reporter or journalist
Office boy	Messenger or office helper
Policeman or policewoman	Police officer
salesman	Salesperson or sales representative or sales associate or sales assistant

- * Target all genders, women, men and others – make the language accessible to everybody
- * Populate your language with both women and men, use examples, avoid stereotypes
- * Use gender-neutral words when possible. English examples of this practice include 'spokesperson' instead of 'spokesman', 'ombud' or 'ombudsperson' instead of 'ombudsman' and 'chair' or 'chairperson' instead of 'chairman'
- * If needed, specify gender by using the adjectives male and female instead of using gendered nouns. Using the English examples above, say 'male/female spokesperson' instead of spokesman/spokeswoman
- * Feel free to introduce more gender-neutral terms in your language. Language authorities are not always one step ahead of the rest of us, sometimes change needs to come from the grass root level – we have the right to decide what we want to be called. (By Emine K.)

- * In the coastal area of Arsin district, a 160-meter-long arched bridge was built.
- * Those who see both sides of the bridge on land say: "it is a joke."

There's no waterway under the bridge!

- * In Arsin, the municipality made environmental arrangements in the coastal area.
- * Within the scope of the project, an interesting bridge was built in 300 acre filling space including cafeterias, walking areas, sport areas, and playgrounds.
- * The bridge, which was built on 5 meters wide and 160 meters long land, was named as " Bridge of Sight ".
- * Another name of the bridge is "The Bridge of Lovers"
- * The bridge was lightened by the municipality.
- * The bridge became one of the areas where visitors took pictures, walked, and was preferred by wedding photographers.
- * The bridge attracts local and foreign tourists.

Theater in Trabzon "Ben Ödüyorum"

Life is a theater, theater is a life. The game is about a lonely and unhappy man who was cheated and sold in friendship and in the family.

The man wants to buy "a family team which works perfectly." The only rule in this game: If a person cannot discern which emotions are true and which emotions are fake, his or her contract will be canceled immediately...

He questions the sad and joyful state of facing fictional life created by giving money.

"Can human beings be happy with a fictional life?"

In the play written by Yves Jamiaque and translated by Hüseyin Mevsim and directed by Vladlen Alexandrov; Ceyhun Gen, Elvan Saliha Karahasan, Emre Ön, Rümeyza Gülendem Sağlam, Ogün Kılıç, Ayşe Natır and Elif Tuğçe Balaban share the leading roles. The play lasts two and half an hour.

A caricature about women's rights in Turkey.(in Canada, 1930)

The Turkish women were given the right to vote and be elected in 5 December 1934 for the first time in Turkey and before many of the women in Western countries. The founder of our republic, the great leader Mustafa Kemal Atatürk addressed women in 5 December 1934, and urged women use this right competently and with discretion.

Since that day in 1934, 5 December is celebrated as Women's Rights Day in our country. Women have the equal rights as men when it comes to science, business, health, education and all other parts of life socially, and culturally, and that is how it should be. Women have had to fight for their rights in almost all countries and succeeded in most. The Turkish women, too, have proved themselves everywhere and have used their lawful rights with acumen.

The years when women of the world won the right to vote and to be elected:

France:1945
